DAILY RIDERS CHOPPERTOWN, *The Sinners

Forget Nancy shows like American Chopper, CHOPPERTOWN, The Sinners is as unscripted, raw and real as it comes – just like Rapid Bikes and the way it should be when you're in need of some motorcycling lifestyle viewing. Written, produced and directed by Scott Di Lalla and Zack Coffman, CHOPPERTOWN, The Sinners is the product of two guys who bought a pro camera, tracked down an underground brotherhood of chopper builders and riders called The Sinners, and spent a good few months documenting real life riding and living. If you like Stone (and if you don't you're not a real rider) you'll love CHOPPERTOWN, The Sinners. From cool tunes to crazy guys like Jason, the movie captures the mateship and life we all love. Founding Sinners member James summed it up perfectly in the opening scene when he said, "It's just something about hanging with your buddies, wrenching and drinking beer. It's like you never have to grow up..."

From that moment, you're hooked and by the end of the flick you just want to go sit down the garage.
