CHOPPER TOWN - THE SINNERS

Choppertown The Sinners is an independent documentary film by Scott Di Lalla and Zack Coffman released on DVD by One World Studios. This DVD has received much deserved acclaim and media coverage. Inspired by the realism of films like Easy Rider and On Any Sunday, this film takes the viewer inside the world of an average Joe building a bike from scratch the old fashioned way with a lot of help from his friends and brothers. For 93 minutes you'll ride with The Sinners of Southern California and become one of the guys as this eccentric group unfolds naturally for the cameras. The production value sets the mood for this journey with the boys. The film is filled with enough real tech footage, awesome motorcycles, lowriders and hot rods to satisfy any gearhead. This candid look at a real life build is accompanied by a great original soundtrack and scenes of real bikers and their real adventures including a late night mosh pit turned bar room brawl. Choppertown is a rare look at raw brotherhood. The DVD package comes with extra footage, clips and bonuses including a full color 12 page booklet.
